Helping Hilo -

Connections Public Charter School students Mathieu Ostrander and Dareece Soares, foreground, do their part Wednesday to clean up litter along the sidewalk fronting Kamehameha Avenue storefronts. Student Rosa Motta, in background, holds a sign reminding the public and area businesses to take pride in beautiful downtown Hilo. Some 50 fourth- and fifth-graders from Connections PCS, along with three teachers and an educational aide, collaborated with the Hilo Downtown Improvement Association in the Downtown Hilo Pride campaign. Connections students will partner with the Hilo DIA during the school year on other
