At bus stops where activation of the four red alternating flashing lights on the bus is prohibited by State law, students shall cross at nearby crosswalks or intersections. If there are none nearby, students shall wait until the bus leaves the stop and look at both sides of the street to see that there are no vehicles approaching before crossing. Students shall avoid crossing at curves or hills or locations where visibility of oncoming vehicles is limited.
At bus stops where activation of the four red alternating flashing lights on the bus is prohibited by State law, students shall walk twelve feet in front of the bus and look to see if the alternating red lamps on the top portion of the bus are flashing. If the lights are flashing, they shall look at the driver and wait for the driver to give the signal to cross. If the red lamps are not flashing, students shall not cross the street and shall notify the driver that the red warning lights are not working and ask the driver for assistance in crossing the street.*
